Listen to ‘Raising White Kids’ Author Jennifer Harvey in an interview with NPR’s Michel Martin.

Thought Starters
Were you raised in a home with “white silence?”
How are you teaching your kids about race and racism?
Are you raising your kids in a way where they are experiencing communities of color as part of their human network?

Reflection Questions
- What did you learn?
- What made you uncomfortable?
- What were some blindspots?
- What actions did you take or might you take?
